

Mathematics Long-term Substitute Teacher

The Archer School for Girls is seeking a skilled and experienced long-term substitute Mathematics teacher starting on April 18, 2022 and lasting through June 10, 2022. The position involves teaching Upper School mathematics classes using student-centered methodologies. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to teaching 4-5 classes, serving as an advisor, and participating in co-curricular school activities. A desire to collaborate with colleagues and a commitment to encouraging the potential in every student is essential.

Our Math Department:

- Believes all students can learn math on a deep level
- Emphasizes sense-making and constructing viable arguments
- Incorporates application and modeling to give math context
- Balances reasoning and conceptual understanding with computation and symbolic fluency
- Puts the students at the center of the learning
- Organizes units and gradebooks with a hybrid standards-based grading approach
- Utilizes technology and digital tools in the classroom and has comfort leading online lessons remotely

Our Ideal Candidate:

- Holds a degree in mathematics or a math related field
- Has taught at least 3 years at the secondary level
- Works to effectively differentiate for diverse learners
- Collaborates well with colleagues within planning teams
- Routinely reflects on their lessons and seeks feedback
- Plans to work with teachers across disciplines for interdisciplinary projects

Our Expectations Include:

- Organizing rich, student-centered lessons and units
- Developing a classroom culture that is inclusive and safe for all students
- Teaching in a hybrid learning environment
- Mentoring a group of students as an advisor
- Committing to ongoing professional development
