

Mathematics Teaching Fellow

The Archer School for Girls is seeking a full-time Mathematics Teaching Fellow for the 2019-2020 school year. We are looking for new or aspiring educators who have a desire to join the teaching profession under the direction of skilled mentor faculty. Ideal candidates have a growth-mindset, positive outlook, and a deep appreciation for the importance of working in a diverse and inclusive community. A passion for working with young people in a culture of teaching excellence is a must.

Responsibilities include:

- teaching 1-2 sections of a mathematics course in middle and/or upper school
- subbing across the curriculum,
- participating in co-curricular school activities,
- providing administrative support as necessary.

Ideal candidates will have a bachelor's degree in mathematics or in a mathematics-related field of study.

The Archer School for Girls is an educational community that supports and challenges young women to discover their passions and realize their true potential. Beyond competitive pay and benefits, faculty enjoy working in a collegial, growth-oriented, and joyful community. We seek faculty who will contribute to an equitable and just learning environment. Integral to its mission, Archer has remained passionately committed to cultivating a diverse and inclusive community where all students can thrive personally and academically.
