

Mathematics Tutor

Part Time

Walnut Hill School for the Arts, Natick, MA, US

Today Requisition ID: 1167

Apply

Salary Range: $70.0000 Hourly Onwards

Walnut Hill School for the Arts seeks a Mathematics Tutor to join the Learning Support team to assist students in finding success in the School's math curriculum for the second semester of the 2022-2023 academic year. This is a non-exempt hourly position during the School year.

Hours: Approximately 10 hours per week based on student need. Schedule and hours vary based on student schedules and the School calendar with evening and weekend hours available.

Rate: $70/hour

Student Support Responsibilities:

- Meet with students individually or in small groups to assist them in finding success in our math curriculum;
- Content area required: Pre-Calculus, Calculus, and Statistics;
- Additional content a plus: Algebra, Algebra 2, Geometry; and
- Collaborate with our math faculty to ensure continuity of teaching methods and strategies.

Skills & Requirements:

- Bachelor's Degree in education or related field required;
- Standardized Testing Certification/Training (SAT/ACT) preferred;
- Strong knowledge of subject matter and math courses listed above; ability and willingness to continue to learn and grow;
- Possess excellent communication skills and ability to work with a wide range of people;
- Ability to work independently and effectively; possess strong collaboration and team-oriented skills;

- Commitment to working in and fostering an inclusive community, and learning about and practicing anti-racist work;
- Ability to speak authentically about the imperative for diversity, equity, and inclusion in schools;
- Possess and exude a positive attitude and a passion for teaching and learning; and
- COVID-19 vaccination and booster or valid exemption required.

About us:

Walnut Hill School for the Arts, located in Natick, Massachusetts and 20 minutes from Boston, is an independent boarding and day high school offering a transformational educational experience designed for student artists in grades 9–post graduate. Walnut Hill combines a comprehensive college-preparatory academic curriculum with intensive, pre-professional artistic training in theater, dance, music, visual art, and writing, film & media arts. Walnut Hill is committed to creating and enhancing an inclusive environment, and welcoming and celebrating a wide range of cultural, artistic, and educational backgrounds that compliments and supports our diverse community.

Commitment to the school's Core Values, of Community, Growth, Excellence, Creativity, and Respect are imperative to the success of all Walnut Hill faculty, staff, and administration members. All Walnut Hill faculty/staff are active and engaged members of the school community who are committed to collaborating and growing in their field, participating in school events, supporting students in their arts, supporting other faculty/staff members, and who have the ability to self-reflect on their own practice.

Submit resume and cover letter through the Walnut Hill School for the Arts online Career Center.