

Part-Time Choir/A Cappella Director

The Archer School for Girls, an educational community that supports and challenges young women to discover their passions and realize their true potential, is seeking a part-time Choir/A Cappella director beginning in August 2019. The candidate must be an exceptional choral director, able to train young voices, conduct ensembles, sight read, arrange vocal and instrumental parts, and modify challenging music to the appropriate skill level. In addition, the candidate must have experience directing a cappella groups and mixed-level choirs. The position may also include teaching middle school vocal and upper school songwriting classes.

Responsibilities include leading middle school and upper school choirs, middle and upper school a cappella groups, winter and spring concert performances, and performances at various other school events. A bachelor's degree in music is necessary; a master's degree in Music or Music Education is preferred. Expertise in using and integrating musical engineering technology is a plus.

We are seeking an innovative candidate with a knowledge of the adolescent voice and a creative approach to choral music and performance. The ideal candidate is a passionate and skillful musician/educator, who is eager to invest their talents in our award-winning music program.

Archer faculty enjoy working in a collegial, growth-oriented, and joyful community. We seek faculty who will contribute to an equitable and just learning environment. Integral to its mission, Archer has remained passionately committed to cultivating a diverse and inclusive community where all students can thrive personally and academically.
